

SINGAPORE CHANGI AIRPORT GUIDE

SINGAPORE
AIRLINES

Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore

Introduction

An enjoyable experience awaits you at Singapore Changi Airport. A wide range of services and facilities are available at the airport to cater to the needs of every passenger, whether it's shopping, entertainment, business or relaxation.

You'll find it all at the most popular airport in the world. Keep this brochure as your handy guide to exploring this world-class airport.

→ Passengers leaving the Transit Area

If you wish to leave the transit area, please ensure you have your travel documents, boarding pass for your connecting flight and your flight ticket. Entry into Singapore is subject to passengers meeting the Singapore Immigration requirements. Please return early, as your flight gate will close 30 minutes before the scheduled departure time. You are not required to pay any airport tax.

GETTING AROUND THE AIRPORT

Information and Customer Service Centre

For general information and assistance, approach the Information and Customer Service Counters located strategically within the transit area.

Skytrain

Take the 1-minute ride on the Skytrain which shuttles between T1 and T2 to access the facilities at both terminals. The service is free. Operates daily, 6am – 1.30am.

Handicapped and Elderly Passengers/Infants

The airport's facilities are specially designed to facilitate easy movement of wheelchair passengers. The Raffles Medical Clinic at the airport provides wheelchairs for rental from 8am – 10pm (please call 543 1118 for details). Handicapped and elderly passengers can also make prior arrangements or seek assistance with the ground handling staff at Transfer E and F. For infants, strollers are provided free of charge at Transfer E and F.

Trolley and Porter Service

Free trolleys are readily available throughout the transit area. Porter service is available upon request.

Free Singapore Tour

If you have at least 5 hours to spare, register for a free 2-hour sightseeing tour of Singapore to catch a glimpse of this exciting city. The tour includes a bumboat cruise down the historic Singapore River. Daily, 10am – 7pm (last booking at 6.30pm).
